

What Happened When Larry Tomczak Had Multiple Guns Pointed at His Head

Larry Tomczak says he was a baby Christian when he made a grave mistake. He chose to hitchhike his way to a Christian conference, and the men who picked them up were less than savory. They were heading down Euclid Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio, when they suddenly turned down an alleyway and pointed guns at Tomczak's head. He tells The Jim Bakker Show what happened next.