

What Happened When This Prominent Pastor Visited David Wilkerson's Gravesite

Pastor Doug Stringer is on a trip with his wife and daughter through Texas, visiting places that have impacted his life and walk with Christ. Among them is Lindale City Cemetery where David and Gwyn Wilkerson are buried, as is evangelist Steve Hill. "I had the privilege of getting to interface with [Wilkerson]," the president and CEO of Somebody Cares Ministries says in a video posted to his Facebook. "He had a huge impact in my life."

He continued: "To hear the back-end of stories, just the influence of people's lives he had ... visiting Times Square, the ministry, the passion, the consistency of the message of David Wilkerson never changed." Watch the video to see what else he said.
