

What Happens in the Spirit Every Time Jesus' Name Is Declared

Kyle Winkler says that the reason God has roughly 300 different names throughout Scripture is because each name invoked a different nature or aspect of His personality. But because Colossians 2:9 says "For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body," Winkler says that means every time Jesus' name is declared, so is every other name of God.

"All those 300 different names that I've been mentioning—all of those things and so much more is packed into the person of Jesus," Winkler says. "This is why, when Jesus showed up to a scene, He didn't have to say anything special. He didn't have to do anything special, but things just automatically obeyed His command."
