

What Happens When God Kicks You Out of Comfort

It's easy to have faith that God is sovereign when things seem to fall into place. But do you struggle to trust that God is good when you can't see the next step for your life? Do you feel like He disappears when you have a difficult decision to make?

Pastor Mike Signorelli, lead pastor of V1 Church, proposes that comfort can become a stumbling block to keep you from moving forward, so God will allow you to become uncomfortable in your circumstances to bring about the changes necessary to fulfill His purpose for your life!
