

What is a “Knower” in the Spirit?

Do you just sometimes know in your knower? You know that you know that you know but you can't explain how you know? If so, you may be a knower.

Knowing in the spirit is part of discernment and it has nothing to do with familiar spirits or the paranormal. It has to do with the mind of Christ and the heart of God.

Have you ever heard someone talk about sixth sense? In the secular world, they are talking about paranormal phenomenon like Extrasensory perception. That's not what we're talking about here; that's witchcraft!

Again, knowing in the spirit is part of discernment and it has nothing to do with familiar spirits or the paranormal. It has to do with the mind of Christ and the heart of God.

Some say it's not a sense but seers like James Goll have called knowing a sixth sense, redeeming the language the world created as it counterfeited an actual spiritual experience. He says knowing is like a sixth sense.

Interestingly enough, Merriam-Webster's dictionary has sixth sense listed. The dictionary's definition is a “power of perception like but not one of the five senses : a keen intuitive power.”

So what is our definition of knowing from the seer's perspective? Here's my definition: A way of receiving prophetic revelation or intelligence that is not obvious to the other spiritual senses; an awareness in your spirit that translates to knowledge in your mind without any direct communication from God through the five spiritual senses; spiritual perception and understanding without explanation as to how you know what you know.

Click here to read the rest of this article. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.