

What Prison Ministry Taught This Woman About Biblical Freedom

Bianca Olthoff, who has worked with Christine Caine's A21 organization, recently gave a talk about biblical freedom. She said that her experiences in prison ministry radically changed her outlook on what true freedom entails—and it's available to anyone ready to receive it. Watch the video to hear her challenging and inspirational words.