

What This Christian Comedian's Scary Prison Experience Taught Him About Following God

During a guest sermon at Gateway Church, Christian comedian Michael Jr. told the audience about his first experience performing at a prison. Using humor, he relates how scared he was during the experience, but he also points out how God used him and what he learned about the Christian life as a result. Watch to hear his story.