

Whatever 2021 Looks Like, Remember God Is Still Sovereign

2020 has not been an ordinary year—it's been an experience! Maybe you expected something to happen, but it didn't work out like you hoped. Many people are grieving the loss of jobs, homes and loved ones.

Pastor Mike Signorelli wants to remind you that regardless of what this year has or next year will look like—God is still sovereign!

If you need a touch from God this Christmas Eve, V1 Church in New York invites you and your whole family to join in for a digital service at 7 p.m. Eastern by clicking this link and joining us live in the comments.

And watch an encouraging word from Pastor Mike Signorelli here. {eo}
