

When Angels Carry Glory Gifts Through Portals

There's been a lot of angelic activity at Awakening House of Prayer in recent weeks. Let me clarify: I believe there's angelic activity all around us all the time, but God has pulled back the veil on the angelic activity at a higher level over the past few Sundays.

In one encounter, a portal opened, and with it, a new dimension of sound came forth. Everything was suddenly louder and crisper.

Then I saw angels coming through windows carrying glory gifts. I call them "glory gifts" because these boxes with bows appeared to be glowing with the glory of God. What was going on was this: The Lord is bringing new gifts and new glory to the church.

The Windows of Heaven

We know there are windows in heaven because Malachi 3:10 speaks of them—not just a single window but more than one. Of course, we don't know how many. We know the angels go through windows of heaven based on Jacob's experience in the wilderness:

"He dreamed and saw a ladder set up on the earth with the top of it reaching to heaven. The angels of God were ascending and descending on it" (Gen. 28:12).

In Joseph's dream, we see a path from heaven to earth and vice versa through a window, or portal.
