

Why Christians May Prefer the True Story to This Hollywood Blockbuster

The 15:17 to Paris tells the story of three Christian heroes who stopped a terrorist from carrying out his planned massacre. The movie, which stars the three heroes as themselves, has plenty excited to see it. But Plugged In cautions that the movie may have more gore, language and partying than families anticipate. Watch the video to discern if this movie is right for your family.