

Why Christians Should Think Again Before Watching This Hollywood Blockbuster

The Mountain Between Us tells the inspirational story of two strangers who unite after a plane crash to find rescue. But the adventure/romance film also packs a surprising amount of violence, sex and profanity into its PG-13 rating. Plugged In explains why Christians should exercise discernment.