

Why IHOP's Final Onething Conference Will Be Dramatically Different From Past Years

Worship leader Jon Thurlow says this year's Onething Conference at the International House of Prayer will be very different from previous years. Mike and Diane Bickle announced last week that this year's Onething would be the final iteration of their annual conference. Thurlow shares highlights from previous years and what will set the final conference apart in this video.