

Why the Soul Survivor Founder Says He's Tired of Christian Leadership Conferences

Rev. Mike Pilavachi says that he's getting tired of Christian leadership conferences because, in his words, "The church of Jesus is not a business. It's a flipping family!" About 20 minutes into his message at the Naturally Supernatural 2018 conference, Pilavachi explains his frustrations with the modern church model and how it encourages people to focus on strategies, principles and business plans rather than creating fellowship and community with fellow believers. Do you agree? Watch his impassioned talk here.
