

Why You Can't Love Jesus Without Loving His Church

Plenty of people have walked away from their local church without leaving the faith. They say they love Jesus but not the church. But rapper-turned-pastor Trip Lee explains why that's completely illogical. In this short video, he makes a compelling case why you can't separate Christ's ministry from His body of believers.