

Why You Don't Need to Be More Like Francis Chan, Bill Johnson or John Wesley

Darren Rouanzoin, pastor of Garden Church in Long Beach, California, says in heaven, God won't ask him why he wasn't more like Bill Johnson, Francis Chan or John Wesley. Instead, He'll ask why he wasn't more like the Darren God made him to be. Rouanzoin says the church needs to rediscover the gift of limits—understanding the specific role God made for you and finding contentment and peace in that, rather than striving to be more than you were meant to be.
