

Why Your Favorite Movie or TV Show May Be Damaging Your Soul

Every Christian needs to stay vigilant and conscious of the messages they receive every day through pop culture and mass media—whether that's TV shows, movies, commercials or even social media posts. Almost everything today is trying to sell believers a vision of the good life—but most of those images bear little resemblance to Jesus' calling for His disciples. But that doesn't mean we should just shun every non-Christian show or movie. In this video, Alan Noble shares how to take a balanced approach to culture and approach media from a truly Christian perspective. Watch it here.
