

Will You Ride with Him?

We know that Jesus Christ is the revelation of all God is. But our ability to activate the life of Christ within us determines the level of victory we experience.

Author Anne Graham Lotz noted the powerful correlation between the way we view Christ the living Word and the way we approach the written Word of God. In Vision of His Glory, Lotz wrote: “[God] considers our reception or rejection of the Bible to be reception or rejection of Himself. Jesus Christ, the King of kings and Lord of lords, is so identified with it, it is His Name!”

READ: John 3:21-24; John 14:15-20; John 17:13-26; Rom. 8:6-11; Col. 1:21-29; Rev. 19:11-13.

HEART ISSUE: How can you apply Christ’s victory in your own life?

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, teach us to walk in the Spirit and lay hold of the victory we have in Christ Jesus. Make us aware that we need not faint in times of conflict because the One within us has already overcome every foe. Amen.

Read a companion article.