Prophets and those who are sensitive to the currents of the Spirit of God are calling this a new era in the church in which women of strength and anointing will arise and step into the roles God has ordained for them.

HEART ISSUE: What stands between you and the place to which God is calling you? Is it lack of discipline, trust or perhaps fear? In the name of Jesus, see that obstacle removed.

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, we pray that nothing will hinder the impartation of vision and hope to women around the world. We will put the past to rest and move forward in Your power. Let courage arise in Your daughters today. And in the strength and enabling of almighty God may we accomplish great exploits for Your glory. Amen.
