

Worship Leader Shares the IHOPKC Altar Call That Changed Everything

Worship leader Rachel Faagutu experienced a life-changing altar call during a Onething conference at the International House of Prayer in Kansas City, Missouri. She says she felt the fear of the Lord and a “holy hush” during the experience—and has never lived the same way since. Faagutu tells her story—and why she recommends this year’s Onething conference—in this video.