

Worship With Carrie Underwood and This Classic Hymn

Start your Sunday morning off right with Carrie Underwood's rendition of the classic hymn "Because He Lives," performed live at Nashville's Ryman Auditorium.

In these days of continuing COVID craziness and national turmoil, we all need to remember that "Because He lives, I can face tomorrow/ Because He lives, all fear is gone."

Join Underwood in worship with the video above or at this link, and share this encouraging testimony with a friend! {eoa}
