

Yearning for Intimacy

Most Christians today yearn for deep intimacy with Christ. They want to experience His joy, but religious mindsets keep many believers from having true fellowship with Him. Instead of worshiping and praising Jesus for His grace, we collapse under the weight of legalism and tradition, and we rob ourselves of the opportunity to draw close to Him. The Holy Spirit wants to free us from legalistic rules and regulations that keep us from experiencing the Father's unconditional love. To discover how to rid your mind of attitudes that keep you from God's best for your life, watch video below.
