

You Must Have a Dream

(Part 1)

What are your dreams? God wants you to dream big and pursue things you've not yet done or accomplished. Look to His Word for direction and encouragement. Ponder His greatness, His goodness and the fact that He has promised to give you the desires of your heart.

READ: Ps. 37: 4; Ps. 113: 7-9; Ps. 121: 1-2; Ps. 139:13-14; Jer. 33:3; Matt. 7:7.

HEART ISSUE: Let God speak to you through His Word and affirm the dreams that are from Him. No matter what you have gone through, consider how much God desires for you. Your great God is looking out for you.

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, I thank You for the big dreams and sanctified desires that you have placed within me. Let these seeds grow as I mature in my daily walk with you. Let me not fear what is to come but trust You instead. I claim this day that the future You have for me is brighter than my past—and that You are greater than any obstacle that could possibly stand in my way! Amen.

(Part 2)

Are you dreaming big enough? God, the Creator of heaven and Earth, is not a puny giver, and He does not give puny dreams! According to His Word, God, who is great, sovereign and magnificent, wants bigger and better things for you.

READ: Prov. 3:5-6; Jer. 29:11-13; Jer. 32:17; Jer. 32:27; Matt. 7:11; Phil. 1:6.

HEART ISSUE: Let your spirit soar this week with renewed hope in who God is. Be mindful of the fact that He is at work—even now—bringing about the desires of your heart and the big dreams He has placed within you.

PRAYER FOCUS: Father God, in the name of Jesus, I thank You for planting within me sanctified dreams and visions that could come only from You! Thank You for my life, which was no accident, but uniquely beautiful and planned by You, for a reason. You have anointed my purpose here on Earth and will fulfill my calling and bring to fruition the big dreams You have placed within my spirit—all for Your glory. Amen.
