

Your Identity Is in Christ

After living a normal life for nearly 33 years, Christine Caine was told she was not the person she thought she was. But the family secret didn't shake her faith. It strengthened it. The truth about who we really are is defined by our relationship with Jesus. When we come to faith in Christ, we become children of God with all the rights and spiritual blessings afforded to believers whose trust is in Him. To hear Christine's powerful testimony, click on video.

{youtube}5LMdiBmhf-Y{/youtube}