

Ten Things You Should NOT Be Doing in Your Dreams

Have you ever had a dream and woke up wondering, “What was that about? Was that from God, the enemy or because of some spicy food I ate for dinner?” Some people ignore their dream lives and say, “Oh it was just a dream.” I’m here to tell you, my friends, that dreams are never “just dreams” and you most certainly should not ignore them. In my most recent podcast episode, 10 Things You Should Not be Doing in Your Dreams, I share a list of 10 common dream elements that should not be happening and equip you with the tools to take back your dream life.

Your dreams are also ways the Lord imparts, reveals and communicates to believers the plans for their lives. Some of you may say, “Well, I don’t dream.” Truth is you do. Did you know the enemy blocks and steals dreams? Take back your dream life today and fight back.

According to spiritual law, it must be revealed “legally” in heaven (spirit realm) before it can manifest in the earth realm. This is why you see the pattern of a thing being revealed in a dream and then manifesting where you can see it (in the natural) later.

If you experience any of these things mentioned, you must rebuke, reject and reverse it IMMEDIATELY upon awakening out of your dream and enter into prayers of spiritual warfare against the plans of the enemy in your life.

Time is ticking from the moment the “seed is planted” and/or revealed to the manifestation, so you must respond with urgency. Your life or someone else’s may depend on it.
