

A Prayer and Declaration to Break Unholy Alliances

Alliance (noun); plural noun: alliances; 1. A relationship based on similarity of interests, nature or qualities.

The enemy has no power over us unless we give it to him, either by agreement to him or by “commonality,” that is what we have allowed areas of our lives to resemble attributes of his. For instance, this can happen when we don’t see our promise come to pass when we thought it would, we begin to “agree” with the voices of doubt and discouragement that come against us.

Jesus said, “After this I will not speak much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over Me” (John 14:30).

The truth is the enemy has “Nothing in you,” and he has no access or rights to invade, attack or rob you any longer. It’s time we severed some wrong alliances and walked through the door into blessing and inheritance.

Use this simple prayer below to break free from alliances you have had with the enemy over areas of your life, so you can enter into the NEW thing he is doing in you.

Identify

“Father, today I ask that You would reveal to me areas of commonality in my life with the enemy, weak areas, mindsets and beliefs that have held me back from my promise and close connection with You.”

Renounce

“I renounce any alliance to any of the following areas, cycles and patterns and refuse to allow the little foxes to steal from my life anymore.”

Specific Areas

- I renounce my alliance with doubt and fear, foreboding, anxiety, depression and sickness and position myself as a receiver of Your perfect love that makes me whole.
- I renounce my alliance with a critical spirit, judgment and words I have spoken against others. I choose to champion and promote others, and as I celebrate others victories, I know I am preparing my own.
- I renounce my alliance with misplaced priorities and procrastination. When You speak and ask me to move ahead, I will not hide in fear, but I will move in faith.
- I renounce my alliance with guilt and shame over issues that have been covered by the blood of Jesus.
- I renounce my alliance with poverty and lack. I can't live tied to the wrong economy any longer. Father, show me Your provision for me.
- I renounce my alliance with slavery and an orphan mentality. Today I ask that You would reveal to me who I am as a son and daughter.

Restore

“Thank You, Jesus, that today is a new day, a new season, and what is ahead of me is so vibrant and brimming with promise. My past is behind me, and I am now free to enjoy and experience all You have been waiting for me to discover, in Jesus' name!” {eoa}
