

Barbara Yoder Dreams: 'Let's Get Out of Contention and Strife'

Barbara Yoder, founder and lead apostle at Shekinah Regional Apostolic Center, says she's had some "crazy dreams" lately about a spirit that is tearing apart the body of Christ. Specifically, the spirit is one of contention and strife, and she says it must be eradicated before it does major damage.

"I really believe there's a spirit that has been loosed in this nation," Yoder said in this video. "I've been alerted to it. There is an unusual propensity for strife, quarreling and anger in the church. I want to warn you to take care of it right away and not allow it to get hold of you.

Yoder says the spirit is connected to both Jezebel and Leviathan.

"But avoid foolish and unlearned debates, knowing that they create strife" (2 Tim. 2:23, MEV). {eoa}
