

Bishop Alan DiDio: The Spiritual Warfare Coming in October

Are we getting ready to experience a greater level of spiritual warfare?

In a new fall 2024 prediction video, Bishop Alan DiDio discussed what we can expect to come as we enter into the Jewish fall festivals and how Christians should approach the impending date of Halloween next month.

“We are entering into a very fractious, dark season in regard to spiritual warfare right now as we head into the fall,” DiDio says after sharing surfaced clips of Democrats calling for violence against Trump.

DiDio then gave a shocking stat regarding war and the Jewish fall festivals.
