

Congress, UAPs and Spiritual Warfare: The Great Deception Has Already Begun

Something strange is stirring in the deep, and even Congress is talking about it. On a recent Charisma Media broadcast, investigator and author L.A. Marzulli joined the team to react to Tucker Carlson's explosive interview with Rep. Tim Burchett, diving into what may be one of the most unsettling conversations yet about underwater UAPs. Marzulli, who has spent more than four decades studying UFO phenomena, says these events aren't just about technology—they're part of a much larger spiritual deception the church can't afford to ignore.

Marzulli warns that humanity is being carefully prepared for "full disclosure," a moment when governments and media will announce that nonhuman intelligences exist. To him, this isn't science fiction but fulfillment of ancient warnings about "men fainting from fear for what is coming upon the earth."
