

Exposing the Enemy's Demoniac Attacks on You

Some Christians believe that while believers cannot be demon possessed, they can be oppressed. With the Word of God behind him, evangelist David Diga Hernandez vehemently disagrees with the second part of that statement.

“When it comes to the believer, demons cannot own you, demons cannot oppress you, demons cannot curse you,” Hernandez says. “The Bible makes it clear that where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”

In this video, Hernandez makes it clear what the Word of God says about so-called demon possession and oppression of the believer. {eoa}
