

New Epstein Files Ignite Alarming Claims of Occult Ritual Activity Among Global Elites

Newly circulated claims tied to alleged Jeffrey Epstein documents are highlighting the dark and demonic activity that took place with Epstein and those connected to him.

According to material referenced in a recent viral video breakdown by Nik Keswani, the documents include reported FBI intake forms, internal communications, financial records and written witness statements. Within these documents include some shocking information, including:

Epstein's Bank Account and "Baal": One document indicates that Epstein maintained a bank account associated with the name "Baal," the demon, whose name in Scripture correlates with human sacrifice.

Torture Videos: Epstein allegedly received torture videos from a redacted contact and was involved in other grotesque acts.

Involvement of High-Profile Individuals: One piece of information Keswani details in the video is the involvement of powerful leaders and influencers who participated in sacrificial practices and horrendous acts. Among the names alleged in these actions are former President George H.W. Bush, Bill Gates, and Prince Andrew.

For Christians, moments like these serve as a sobering reminder that Scripture has always warned about hidden darkness operating behind systems of power.

The Bible is clear that evil often thrives in secrecy, but it is just as clear that God is a God who exposes what is done in darkness. No matter how dark the world may appear, God is still exposing, still redeeming and still drawing people back to Himself—and one day, every hidden thing will be brought fully into the light.
