

The Day I Saw the Devil—And How Angels Fought Back

What would you do if you saw Satan face-to-face?

That's the position renowned Bible teacher and prophetic minister Perry Stone found himself in when he had a vision that put him in front of none other than the ruler of darkness.

During the vision, Stone found himself standing in a hallway when an invisible force began lifting his suitcase and briefcase—items he typically carries when traveling for ministry. Recognizing this as an attempt by the enemy to hinder his mission, Stone suddenly witnessed the manifestation of Satan himself.
