

UFO Stops When Called Out in the Name of Jesus

Are aliens real?

That's a question people have been asking for decades with many different theories floating around about their potential existence, and whether or not they may be demonic in nature.

In a recent interview, L.A. Marzulli spoke to a man, Jeff, who caught an undeniably spooky scene on camera with a full array of what appears to be unusual lights fall from the sky in the shape of a disc.

"On Sunday night, my son and his wife were dropping off our precious granddaughter to spend a week with us. And we were saying goodbye out there on the driveway and as they were leaving, my wife looked up and said, 'What is that?'" Jeff said.

Jeff said that as he and his family looked up in the sky, they saw a magnificent object that appeared to be flashing different colors in the sky.

"I looked up and we all saw this white, brilliant object that was flashing," Jeff said.

Jeff said there were no strobe lights or commercial or federal aircrafts around. What they saw was unique and distinctive from either of those things.
