

David Turner Hosts Healing and Deliverance Show on Facebook LIVE

David Turner is an international healing and deliverance evangelist based in Atlanta, Georgia. Every Monday night at 6 p.m. EST, David hosts a new show live on his ministry's Facebook page called "Right Now": The hour- to an hour-and-a-half-long show is full of worship, teaching, miracles, signs and wonders. David prays live for each person who comments while the show is going on. Each week, people send hundreds of prayers and testimonies.

"Brother David prayed for me, and as a result, I am now cancer free! I am now the product of something that I had only ever read about and now have experienced first hand."

David began his ministry 14 years ago, and has traveled to India and Africa to minister in churches and open-air crusades alike for hundreds of thousands of people. This new Facebook LIVE show, "Right Now," is a way for the Holy Spirit to deliver and heal people through David's online broadcast with the same power as the many crusades he has led.
